

A Doctor as in a Doctor.
A self sufficient humbug who took up the business of a physician, and had a deep knowledge of the healing art, was once called to visit a young man afflicted with the apoplexy. Bolus gazed long and hard, felt his pulse and pocket, looked at his tongue, and his wife, and finally gave vent to the following sublime opinion:
"I think he's a gone fellow."
"No, no!" exclaimed the sorrowful wife, "do not say that."
"Yes," returned Bolus, lifting up his hat and eyes heavenward at the same time, "yes, I do say so: there ain't no hope, not the least mite; he's got an attack of nihil fit in his lost frontis."
"Where?" cried the startled wife.
"In his lost frontis, and he can't be cured without some trouble and a great deal of pains. You see his whole planetary system is deranged; lustily, his vox populi is pressin' on his advantage; secondly, his catacrapical cutaneous has swelled considerably if not more; thirdly and lastly, his solar ribs are in a convulsed state, and he ain't got any money, consequently he's bound to die."

PHOTOGRAPHIC BILLS.—Many of our contemporaries have been describing the dangers likely to arise from improvements in photography applied by a Cincinnati artist to the copying of bank bills. It bills are printed in various colors they cannot be copied. Scientific American.

The opening of navigation was celebrated at Pittsburg on Saturday, by a tremendous "free fight" on Monongahela wharf. One man was seriously hurt, and another stabbed. The draymen and river men "pitched in." Mr. Greenlee, clerk of the South American, was terribly battered, and a drayman named Monday, was dangerously stabbed in the region of the kidneys.

The Culpepper Observer says: "Wanted at this office, an editor who can please everybody. Also, a foreman who can so arrange the paper as to have every man's advertisement to head the column."
